The MSU College of Arts and Letters once again offers stimulating lectures that will rekindle that college feeling!

Join us on Friday, May 21, from 1 – 4 p.m. at the Kellogg Center on the campus of MSU.

The most common piece of feedback received after the first two years of Cool U? Do it more often!

So the College of Arts and Letters is taking that advice to heart and launching an annual Cool U program schedule that begins with our first half-day event on May 21.

Cool U: Arts & Humanities Programs for Adults is designed for those who want to renew or continue their love of learning. In an informal and comfortable university setting, our half-day Cool U features two lectures by top professors from the College of Arts and Letters as well as a presentation by and Q&A with an artist to conclude the afternoon.

Program

1:00 p.m. Welcome and Refreshments (throughout the afternoon)

Halbritter is assistant professor in the Department of Writing, Rhetoric and American Cultures.

2:15 p.m. Lecture 2: Dr. David W. Stowe on “No Sympathy for the Devil: God, Pop Music, and the Movement that Changed America.”
Stowe is professor of American Studies in the College of Arts and Letters.

3:15 p.m. Meet the Artist
See the creations of an artist in town to present works during the East Lansing Art Festival, hear about the process and engage in a question/answer session.

Pre-registration fee by May 17 is $15 per person and includes lectures, refreshments and light snacks. You may attend all or any portion of the afternoon. All attendees must be registered. On-site registration fee is $20.

Visit www.cal.msu.edu/alumni/CoolU.php to register or call 517-353-4725.

Cool U is offered in conjunction with the East Lansing Art Festival which runs May 22-23. For more information on the art festival, visit elartfest.com.

For more arts action on Saturday and Sunday, visit the MSU Arts and Crafts Show on May 22 and 23 on the grounds of the MSU Union, near the corner of Grand River Ave. and Abbot Rd. For more info, visit uabevents.com/artsandcrafts.
