Calligraphy

Workshop for Adults with
Kathryn Darnell

Saturday, February 27, 2010
1:30-4:30 PM
Kresge Art Museum

$35.00 Friends of Kresge; $45.00 General Public

Join well-known calligrapher and illustrator, Kathryn Darnell for an afternoon of “beautiful writing”. This limited-class-size workshop will cover Italic/Chancery Cursive Calligraphy as well as practical tips and creative ways to use calligraphy. Participants will be introduced to a variety of writing tools, but will use calligraphy markers during the workshop. Pens will be provided, along with instruction sheets, paper and guide lines. Those who have their own calligraphy tools are welcome to bring them.

Kathryn Darnell is a freelance artist who has had an active studio in downtown East Lansing since 1981 and teaches in the Visual Art & Media program at Lansing Community College. Her art has been shown near (East Lansing, Owosso, Detroit) and far (Oregon, Washington D.C., Ireland). She has illustrated several children’s books including Fibblestax, Hannah and the Homunculus and My Piggy Bank, all from Sleeping Bear Press.

To register for the adult calligraphy workshop, contact Cari Wolfe, Kresge Art Museum Educator at 517-884-0653 or wolfeca1@msu.edu. Payment in full is due at time of registration; deadline for registration is February 12th; no refunds made after February 24th; class size is limited.
