A Picnic and a Play

On the banks of the Red Cedar

Wednesday, June 21, 2006, 6:30 p.m.
(rain date Thursday, June 22)

Sketch by Karen Kangas-Preston

Enjoy a boxed meal and the musical comedy A Day in Hollywood/A Night in the Ukraine

Pick up your boxed meal at Kresge Art Museum, located on the first floor of Kresge Art Center. Enjoy it on your picnic blankets or in the building. Bring your own lawn chairs and sit in the reserved lawn area or in the bleacher seats on the banks of the Red Cedar, south of the Auditorium building. Then watch the 8 p.m. performance of A Day in Hollywood/A Night in the Ukraine directed by Rob Roznowski and performed by the Summer Circle Theatre repertory company.

A Day in Hollywood/A Night in the Ukraine by Dick Vosburgh and Frank Lazarus combines a musical revue of 1930s movie musicals sung by ushers of Grauman's Chinese Theater with a spoof of a Marx Brothers movie. This musical double bill promises to be an evening of nostalgia and hijinks perfect for the whole family.

Before the performance, MSU Department of Theater costume designer and costume shop supervisor Karen Kangas-Preston will discuss the process of costume design from concept to construction. Karen is the costume designer for all 2006 Summer Circle shows.

This special event is co-presented by Kresge Art Museum and Summer Circle Theatre in conjunction with Kresge Art Museum's exhibition Cat Chow: Second Skin—Ingenuity Transforms Fashion into Art, on view through July 28, 2006. For more information about Kresge Art Museum, call (517) 353-9834 or visit www.artmuseum.msu.edu. For more information about Summer Circle Theatre's free performances, call (517) 355-6690 or visit www.theatre.msu.edu.

Reservations must be pre-paid. To register, please complete and detach this form and return with your check by Monday, June 19. No refunds after this date. Make checks payable to Michigan State University. Please mail to: Kresge Art Museum, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI 48824. Proceeds benefit Kresge Art Museum and Summer Circle Theatre.
