EAST LANSING, MICHIGAN - Excitement, ingenuity, and variety can all be found in Kresge Art Museum during the MSU Department of Art and Art History 2011 Undergraduate Exhibition, on view beginning Saturday, April 9. For the first look at this showcase of student work, join the Department of Art & Art History and many of the artists for a reception on Friday, April 8, 2010 from 7-9 p.m., which is free and open for all to attend.

The Undergraduate Exhibition itself is an annual collaboration between the MSU Department of Art & Art History and Kresge Art Museum. It will feature works of art created by undergraduate students at MSU in ceramics, drawing, graphic design, painting, photography, sculpture, and printmaking courses. Awards will be given for Best in Show, first through third place, and other recognition awards. Student Book Store is the awards and exhibit sponsor.

“This is a great celebration for students as they complete their undergraduate training at MSU, and provides a big step towards their future as artists,” said Michael Rush, director of the Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum. “We are pleased to present this exhibition of student artwork to the community.”
