PRESENTER: Therese Dolan, Professor of Art History
Tyler School of Art, Philadelphia

DATE: Thursday, January 17, 2008

TIME: 7:00 p.m.

LOCATION: 108 Kresge Art Center, Michigan State University Campus

EAST LANSING, MICHIGAN —Therese Dolan, Professor of Art History, Tyler School of Art, Philadelphia, will lecture on Artworks of the Future: Manet and Music at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, January 17, as a part of Kresge Art Museum's programming for the current exhibition, The Impressionist Era: Works on Paper. The lecture will be held in 108 Kresge Art Center, adjacent to Kresge Art Museum.

Dr. Dolan is a 19th century French painting specialist whose interdisciplinary research combines the visual arts, music, theater and literature, weaving together artists such as Manet, Bizet, Wagner, Liszt and Baudelaire. Dolan is a recipient of the Lindback Award for Distinguished Teaching, Art Historians of the Nineteenth Century board member, and past President of the Interdisciplinary Nineteenth-Century Studies Association. She has lectured extensively across the country and at many museums, including the Philadelphia Museum of Art. This lecture is sponsored by the Department of French, Classics and Italian, MSU, and the Department of Art and Art History, MSU.

Dolan will be available for interviews earlier in the day on Thursday, January 17. Please contact Mariah Cherem at (517) 353-9834 to schedule an interview.

Kresge Art Museum is located in Kresge Art Center, at the intersection of Physics and Auditorium Roads between the Alumni Chapel and the MSU Auditorium on the campus of Michigan State University in East Lansing, MI. Museum hours are Monday through Friday, 10 to 5 p.m., Thursday until 8 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, noon to 5 p.m. For additional information, call (517) 355-7631 or visit www.artmuseum.msu.edu.
